We will respond to your complaint in line with the timeframes set out below. If you feel we have not sought to address your complaint within eight weeks, you may be able to refer your complaint to the Property Redress Scheme to consider without our final viewpoint on the matter.

We will send you a letter acknowledging receipt of your written complaint within three working days of receiving it, enclosing a copy of this procedure.

We will then investigate your complaint. This will normally be dealt with by the office manager who will review your file and speak to the member of staff who dealt with you. A formal written outcome of our investigation will be sent to you within 15 working days of sending the acknowledgement letter.

If at this stage you are still not satisfied, you should contact us again and we will arrange for a separate review to take place by a senior member of staff.

We will write to you within 15 working days of receiving your request for a review, confirming our final viewpoint on the matter.

If you are still not satisfied after the last stage of the in-house complaint procedure (or more than 8 weeks has elapsed since the complaint was first made), you can request an independent review from The Property Redress Scheme.

Please note the following:
